ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS ATTACHED TO THE GRADUATE BOCCONI MERIT AWARD

1. Students awarded a Graduate Bocconi Merit Award will receive a full tuition waiver (which does not include graduation fees).
2. Merit Award recipients may be required to participate in activities organized by the University, such as presentations, workshops or activities for prospective students, for no more than 4 days per year. Participation in these activities (if required by the University) is compulsory to maintain the Merit award.
3. For the AY 2017-18 recipients of the Bocconi Merit Award will not be allowed to give up this award in favor of other kinds of financial aid offered by Bocconi (including the ISU Bocconi Scholarship). They may do so, however, in the following year/s.
4. The following conditions apply to Merit Award Recipients awarded housing:
 - Students awarded free accommodation will not have to fill out a separate housing application. Housing assignments will be made automatically and will be communicated approximately in the month of July via email.
 - Those who refuse free housing are not eligible for reduced rate housing but only full rate housing.
 - Those who fail to pass at least one exam by January 31st, 2018 will maintain the fee waiver for the AY 2017-18 however, they will be required to leave their room or to pay housing at full rate for the period February – July 2018.
 - Those who fail to meet the renewal criteria for the second year may request to remain in the room assigned to them as a full rate paying resident, starting from September for the whole academic year.
 - Housing will not be made available after the second year.

RENEWAL CRITERIA

The Graduate Merit Award will be automatically renewed for the second year as long as the following criteria are met:

- Complete the enrollment process for the 2018-19 academic year, including the payment of the advance on the 1st installment of tuition and fees by September 15th, 2018.
- and earn at least 44 credits by the end of the 2017-18 second summer session* with a weighted credit average of 27/30.

The weighted credit average (not rounded) will be taken into consideration, based on all exams registered by the end of the second summer exam session*, including single parts of modules even if both modules have not been taken, as long as the single module has been registered.

 Please note: the second summer exam session only refers to exams of second semester courses and does not include make up exams of first semester courses. This session usually ends in mid-June but it's the students' responsibility to check on time the Bocconi examination sessions calendars.

EXCLUSION FROM THE MERIT AWARD

Recipients who withdraw after enrollment will automatically lose all benefits attached to the Bocconi Merit Award. Applicants of the XX rounds who withdraw after enrollment will be eligible to request the reimbursement of the first installment on tuition and fees (excluding the non-refundable administrative fees as foreseen by the TCA office) by DD/MM/YYYY. Students who withdraw after DD/MM/YYYY and/or are applicants of later rounds will not be eligible for reimbursement should they withdraw after enrollment.

Students will automatically lose the Bocconi Merit Award if they:

- do not accept the award according to the guidelines set forth in the acceptance form;
- receive disciplinary sanctions imposed by Bocconi University: disciplinary sanctions imposed by Bocconi University will result in a revocation of all benefits, including those granted for the Academic Year when the sanctioned behavior took place.

Students whose award is revoked must settle all tuition and fees payments with the TCA office and will be required to pay for housing at full rate for the whole academic year.

- I have read and accept all of the above acceptance procedures and conditions attached to the 2017-2018 Bocconi Merit Award.
- I do NOT accept the Bocconi Merit Award.
