

HOW TO GET YOUR ITALIAN UNIVOCAL ID NUMBER

The “Codice Fiscale” (Italian univocal ID number) is a personal code which identifies every person within the Italian State when dealing with public offices or administration.

In order to obtain your Italian univocal ID number you have to apply at the “Agenzia delle Entrate”. There are six agencies in Milan located in different areas, you may go to the agency which is closest to where you are living.

At the Agency you should produce the following documents:

- Passport plus two copies of the personal data/visa information pages. Non-UE students are also required to produce the permit to stay (“permesso di soggiorno”) or receipt of the post office application.
- Complete green and white form provided at the “Agenzia Entrate”.

Your “Italian univocal ID number” should be issued in real time.
