

Movies & Languages 2018-2019

Incredibles 2

About the movie (subtitled version)

DIRECTOR	Brad Bird
YEAR/COUNTRY	2018 / USA
GENRE	Computer-animated superhero film
VOICES	Craig T. Nelson, Holly Hunter, Sarah Vowell

PLOT

The Parr family, Bob (Mr. Incredible), Helen (Elastigirl) and the two eldest children, Violet and Dashiell "Dash", as well as baby Parr, Jack Jack, have all been transformed into superheroes. They spend a lot of their time, doing good, fighting gangsters who are terrorising urban populations. The general authorities, however, have not understood that they are the ones doing good, and thus have made superheroes illegal. They meet Winston Deavor, a wealthy business man and his sister Evelyn. They propose to send the heroes on missions that will help them regain public trust. Evelyn suggests that Helen Parr (Elastigirl) start alone, without her husband Bob (Mr. Incredible) and the two eldest children Violet Parr, and Dashiell "Dash" Parr. Evelyn is thus sent to a big city that resembles New York. Bob stays at home to mind the children.

LANGUAGE

Standard English.

VOCABULARY

To track me: to follow me	To wipe out: to eliminate
Trampoline me: transform yourself into a trampoline and throw me in a direction	Platter: a second course meal with a side dish
Freaky: strange	A tap: the place where water come out for a sink
Manhood wise: in terms of being a man	To roll with the punches: although something may be difficult, you stick to it and follow it
Undermine: the first meaning is to destroy the foundations for an idea, but in the film 'Undermine' is a bad character who destroys the foundations of buildings, thereby making the buildings fall down	To keep track of: to follow something closely

If you want out of the hole, first you've got to put down the shovel: if you want to get out of a situation, you've got to stop doing the things that put you into that situation in the first place	Gloved hand: a hand with a glove on it
To throw yourself into something: to start doing something enthusiastically	To strap in: to secure someone by tying him/her
Flattering: something that makes you look or sound very good	To roam: to wander
Homey: something that makes you feel comfortable and at home	Brace yourself: become tense because of something you are about to see or do
To get the hang of something: to understand how to do something, or how something works	She's rich, and probably she gets know more than a slap: because she's rich she won't get in trouble
Dozing: sleeping, or the first moments when you are falling asleep	To have the stage to yourself: to be able to do what you want to do with no interference from outside
A hold up: a robbery where the robbers have guns and tell the people to put their hands up	To slap something together: to build something or assemble something very quickly
Raccoon: the animal that looks like it has a black mask around it eyes, so it looks like it is a robber	To get a reaction: when people react to something you have done
To spiral out of control: to go up, and while going up to rotate round and round	Casualties: people who die because of an accident or war
An outcast: a person who is thrown out of a group	To be in hiding: not showing yourself in public because the police or someone else is looking for you