COMPETITION FOR THE CONFERRAL OF 1 RESEARCH GRANT FOR THE SECTOR OF 12/H2 HISTORY OF MEDIEVAL AND MODERN LAW, AT THE DEPARTMENT OF LEGAL STUDIES OF UNIVERSITA' COMMERCIALE "LUIGI BOCCONI" OF MILAN.

Article. 1

To further the education and improvement of junior scholars, the Università Commerciale "Luigi Bocconi" of Milan, announces a competition by exams and academic titles for the conferral, by means of an appropriate contract, according to art. 22 of Law 240/2010, of 1 research grant with the following characteristics:

Duration: ONE YEAR

Sector: 12/H2 HISTORY OF MEDIEVAL AND MODERN LAW
(Scientific Sector IUS/19 History of Medieval and Modern Law)

In the department of "Legal Studies"

Professor of referral: prof.ssa Annamaria MONTI

Title: The codification of private law and the teaching of law in Italy with particular reference to the courses of "Natural Law", embracing philosophy, ethics, theology and law (18th-19th centuries).

Brief description: Candidates will be required to conduct research and to contribute to institutional activities in the field of legal history. The appointed person must have experience in archival research. The project involves the study of the relationship between the codification of private law and the university teaching of law in Italy, with particular reference to the teaching of Natural Law in Lombardy at the end of the 18th century and at the beginning of the 19th century. Knowledge of Italian language is compulsory.

Article. 2

Admission Requirements

In order to participate in the competition, the candidate must have, as a preferred qualification, the possession of a PhD or equivalent, carried out in Italy or abroad, or in the course of being conferred.

Relations (up to the fourth degree of kinship) to any professor in the University Council, the University Rector, the Director General or any members of the University Board are not allowed to apply.

Conferral of the research grant is incompatible with any form of employment or any simultaneous use of PhD grants, specialist schools or post-doctorate grants in Italy or abroad and if the candidate is a public employee, they must take unpaid leave.

If the candidate has benefitted from any previous grants or scholarships with any university, they cannot exceed a total of twelve years. Time off for maternity or health reasons is not counted as part of the twelve years.

These statutory pre-requisites must be in place at the deadline for the presentation of applications determined by the present announcement.

Candidates may obtain a conditional acceptance. At any time, the administration can arrange, with reason, exclusion from the selection procedure due to the lack of necessary pre-requisites.

Article. 3 Applications

Applications, completed according to the attached form, addressed to the Rector of Bocconi University, must reach the "Divisione Faculty e Ricerca" office via e-mail before 12 noon of 25 February 2019 to recruiting-adr@unibocconi.it

Each candidate's application must clearly indicate:

- surname and name
- date and place of birth

Conferral of the research grant is compatible with any form of occasional work but incompatible with any simultaneous use of PhD grants, specialist schools or post-doctorate grants.

If the candidate covers any other posts, the candidate must attach a declaration specifying the type of activity undertaken, duration and the university in which they carried out their research and the commitment to give up the employment if conferred the grant due to incompatibility.

Finally, if the candidate has benefitted from any previous grants or scholarships with any university, they must attach a declaration explaining the time period, length and University where they benefitted from the grant.

Article. 4 Judging Committee

The Judging Committee of the current competition, named by the Rector, is made up of three tenured professors who will remain for two years in their role.

The competition will be carried out by an evaluation of titles and examination, by means of an interview.

The Committee can allocate a maximum of 100 points for each candidate:

- 30 points for the evaluation of CV and academic titles;
- 30 points for the evaluation of scientific publications presented;
- 40 points for the evaluation by interview

In order to be admitted to be evaluated by interview, candidates must first achieve a minimum of 40/100 points in the evaluation of titles, publications. The points given for titles will be communicated to the candidates before the interviews are carried out.

Candidates will be informed of the interview date by e-mail, with adequate advance notice. The interview can also be carried out via conference call. There is also the possibility that an interview can be carried out in a room at the University with advance notice of at least 7 days. The interview will be open to the public.

At the end of the assessment, the Committee formulates a final judgement for each candidate and creates a ranking in descending order on the basis of the score obtained, thereby assigning research grants to winning candidates.

The Commission may appoint suitable candidates who can take over in the event of withdrawal/renunciation of the winner.

Each winning candidate will receive a written communication, via e-mail with the grant contract that should be duly signed, before the deadline of 15 days after receiving the letter.

The grant cannot be divided. If for any reason the candidate stops receiving the grant, they cannot be substituted by other candidates who have not won a grant.

Article.5 Rights and Duties of the Grant Winner

The grant will indicatively run from 1st March 2019.

Conferral of the grant implies a commitment to undertake research, study and preparation of research for at least four days a week.

The normal obligations of the research include:

- Research activity as part of the Research Project presented, as well as additional programs elaborated by the Department, supervised by the Professor of referral, who will check the activity carried out;

All other work, for the University or externally, undertaken outside of the four days in the University, should not conflict with that of the researcher at Bocconi University. A judgment of these circumstances will be decided by the Department Director, having consulted the professor of referral.

Such circumstances will lead to the ending of the assignment of the grant.

The conferral of the research grant does not constitute an employment contract and does not confer any rights to teaching roles within the University.

Article.6
Economic Compensation

The amount of the research grant is € 19.500,00 gross per annum. The amount is excluded from “Irpef tax” (regional tax).

The University will provide insurance for risks of injury and civil responsibility.

The payment of the grant will be made monthly post-dated, following presentation before the tenth day of each month, of a payment note, signed by the Professor of Referral with the scope of checking the activity undertaken.

Article.7
Causes of deferral or suspension of the grant

If a candidate is on maternity leave, minimal payments will be made by INPS (national insurance) and a top-up payment will be made by Bocconi University up to the monthly amount of the grant.

Article. 8
Stays Abroad

Stays abroad, for study reasons, should be approved by the Rector beforehand, by means of a formal assessment by the Department Director, having conferred with the Professor of referral.

Article. 9
Certificate of the activity carried out

At the end of the grant, the beneficiary has the right to ask for a certificate from the part of the Professor of Referral, stating the scientific activity carried out during their time in Bocconi as a researcher.
