Notes for German language

- From April 2016, the certifications C2, B1 Level provided by Goethe Institut and the certification B1 Level provided by ÖSD, are structured in 4 modules matching to the 4 language skills that can be verified separately or not according to the candidate's choice. In order to record the certificate, the result of each of the 4 modules must be submitted (one or more diplomas in the original version). The final score will be calculated based on the mathematical average from the outcome of the 4 individual modules. For conversion, the same scale is used regardless of the test version (unitary or modular).
- In order to record the certificate, students must submit the diploma together with a statement of the exact percentage score obtained, issued by the examining board. Please be advised that the minimum results necessary for each interval of conversion are whole numbers.
- Please remember that you can choose the exit level A2 and B1 only for German as a second foreign language. The exit level A2 is possible only for those bachelor program students who are enrolled until a.y. 2013-2014 (German code: 6039 and 30236).
- The following certificates GZ B1 Zertifikat Deutsch für Jugendliche, and GZ A2 Fit in Deutsch 2 are not be recognized as an alternative to the German exam.
- For certificates submitted from 1 August 2017. For Master of Science programs the B2 general certificate can be only recognized as an alternative to the B1 business internal exam.
- In order to record the certificate, students must submit: 1. the diploma issued by KMK, 2. a High School certificate specifying a) the type of maturità and the score obtained b) the score obtained specifically in the quarta prova.
