The Committee is charged with comparative evaluation for the conferral of n. 1 fixed-term private law contract as "Lecturer", announced by the Luigi Bocconi University on February 21, 2022, prot. n. 1788, for the competition sector 12/E1 INTERNATIONAL LAW, in particular with evaluating the applications received and the identification of candidates to be admitted to a mock lesson.

The Committee is composed as follows:

| • Prof. Catherine Rogers | Committee member |
| • Prof. Leonardo Borlini | Secretary |

The Committee notes that n. 5 applications have been duly submitted. The applications have been analyzed on the basis of the criteria cited in the competition announcement. With a possible view to inviting candidates to give a mock lesson by way of completion of the comparative assessment, the curricula, the list of publications and the qualifications presented by each were preliminarily evaluated.

The teaching profile required by the announcement regards courses concerning the grouping of "International Law (scientific-disciplinary sector IUS 13)". In particular, in light of the educational needs expressed by the Department of Legal Studies, the Committee takes into account especially subjects in the field of international law, in particular International Law, Comparative Business Law and Labour Law (European Social Law), to be taught in courses delivered in English, as the areas that should characterize the candidates' disciplinary interests, skills and teaching. The Committee also takes into account substantial teaching experience.

Based on this evaluation, the Committee formulates the following judgments:
